FIRE INSURANCE NOTICES, &c. SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY,

ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in each, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County, where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS: James T. Close, H. W. Thomas, T. B. Robertson, Thomas T. Hill, Dr. R. H. Stabler, R. H. Carter, Wm. The above declaration being established by the testimony of hundreds of the best judges in the land who have tested their merits by actual experiment, I will venture to state two very valid reasons why you should buy of me, in preference even to buying or ordering from the factory, as I have yet to hear of the first complaint of any defect in any Piano sold by me during the six years I have been in the business. In the first place, then, I will sell at precisely the same prices charged at the factory, and thus you save freight, insurance, and commissions for receiving and forwarding. In the second place, you leave in one of your Virginia towns the small profit I make upon the sale, and to that amount, at least, you contribute to the sustaining and fostering trade, industry and enterprise at home, where it is sure to react beneficially upon yourself and others. All of which I respectfully submit to your can-JOHN H. PARROTT. did consideration.

MISCELLANEOUS READING. MEMORABLE SPEECHES .- We desire to embalm the following extraordinary sublime, eloquent, and elegant perorations. The first is said to have been delivered before a court of justice in Pennsylvania: "Your honor sits high upon the adorable seat of justice, like the Asiatic rock of Gibraltar, while the eternal streams of justice, like the cadaverous clouds of the valley, flow meandering at your extended feet."

The next is by a celebrated lawyer of New "Your honors, I fancy, do not sit there like marble statues, to be wafted about by every idle breeze. Next, the soulstirring opening of a western "The important crissis which were about to have arriven, have aroven." Last, but not least, one that locates itself: "The court will please to observe that the gentleman from the East has given them a very learned speech. He has rosmed with old Romulus, soaked with old Socrates, ripped with Euripides, and cantered with Cantharides! but what-your honor-what does he know about the law of old Arkansaw?"

An Author. - A young scapegrace, who nad seen out a fortune and fallen into bad habits, took up his residence in a country village, pretending to be an author. His shabby appearance was, therefore, accounted for; and as his address was good, and marks of personal beauty remained, many a romantic village maid sighed over the "cruel fate of genius." Sighs would not pay his landlord's bill, and when a month had expired he was dunned in good earnest. At length the landlord told him he never saw any of his productions, and wished to know what work he had been the author of. Being thus pushed, he replied: "Why, sir, I call myself an author, and so I am-the author of my own misfortunes."

Will you be kind enough to insert the following, and oblige "A BUNCH" or GIRLS. Dr. Franklin recommends a young man, n the choice of a wife, to select her "from a bunch," and gives as his reason, that, when there are a number of daughters, they improve each other, and, from emulation, acquire more accomplishments, and know more, and do more, than a single child spoiled by parental fondness. A gentleman in New Orleans was agreea-turkey served up for his dinner, and inquired of his servent how it was obtained. "Why sah, replied Sambo, "dat turkey has been roosting on the fence tree nights, so dis mornin I seize him for the rent ob de fence.'
